SATURDAY,
16 NOVEMBER, 2024

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

SHEIKH HASSAN ALY

Imam Hassan Mostafa Aly is the Director of the Humanitarian Faith Initiative bringing over 15 years of experience as a respected faith leader, scholar, and advocate for humanitarian causes. He also serves as the Director of Community Engagement and Global Partnerships at MedGlobal, where he works to connect faith-based and humanitarian organizations to address critical health needs in crisis-affected areas.

Imam Aly has served as Principal Imam and Director of Religious Affairs at The Mecca Center in Willowbrook, IL, and has held key leadership roles at various Islamic centers across the United States.

A distinguished graduate of Al-Azhar University in Cairo, Egypt, Imam Aly earned a degree in Islamic Studies and Theology. His oratory skills were recognized early in his career when he received the prestigious Best Religious Speech Award from Al-Azhar University in 2002. He has also expanded his outreach by hosting several Islamic radio programs in the U.S., promoting dialogue and education on Islamic principles.

Currently, Imam Aly is pursuing a Ph.D. in Theology at the Lutheran School of Theology and serves as an Adjunct Professor at Lewis University. His work continues to bridge faith and humanitarianism, fostering interfaith collaboration to address both local challenges and global crises.
